

Announcement Muang Satun Police Station

Subject: Measures for the protection of complainants, whistleblowing, confidentiality

Superintendent of Muang Satun Police Station police officer and regular employees We would like to jointly announce the protection measures for complainants, whistleblowing, confidentiality Ready to take responsibility for the consequences of the action. Create a safe organization from protection measures for complainants, whistleblowing, confidentiality adhere to moral culture In an organization that will perform duties with a focus on the common interests of people in society with morality in performing duties It is also a value for organizations or Muang Satun police stations. should be taken as a guideline along with other rules and regulations for creating a clean organization Providing services with transparency and fairness for service recipients and continuously improve the operational quality of Muang Satun Police Station

To achieve protection measures for complainants, whistleblowers, and such confidentiality Muang Satun Police Station Therefore, there are measures to protect complainants, whistleblowers, and confidentiality as follows:

๑) Collecting information and identity of whistleblowers or complainants and the complainant is confidential

๒) Disclosure as necessary with safety in mind and the damage of the reporter, the source of the information, or the relevant person who has been damaged will receive damage relief with proper and fair process

๓) In the event that the complainant Or those who cooperate in the investigation can request The company may prescribe appropriate protection measures or the company may prescribe protection measures by the complainant. Or the person who cooperates in the investigation of facts is not requested. If you see that it is likely to cause damage. or insecurity

๔) Shall not take any unfair action against whistleblowers or complainants. Whether by changing the job position, job description, workplace, suspension, intimidation, interruption of work, termination of employment. or perform any other acts that are unfair to the whistleblowers or complainants. or those who cooperate in fact-checking

๕) Provide channels for receiving information or clues, or if the public needs advice on protection measures for complainants, whistleblowers, confidentiality. through the website <https://muangsatunpolice.com/> or complain via QRcode attached to this document.

It is hereby announced for general information.

Announced on February ๓, ๒๐๒๓

colonel

(Seksit Prajotchue)

Superintendent of Muang Satun Police Station