

Announcement Muang Satun Police Station

Subject: Intent to prevent corruption of Muang Satun Police Station

Superintendent of Muang Satun Police Station police officer and regular employees Let's jointly declare our intention to create a standard of transparency. Ready to take responsibility for the consequences of actions, build an organization to be safe from corruption in the performance of duties Adhere to moral culture in the organization to perform duties. by focusing on the common interests of people in society with morality in performing duties make progress to duty officers, taking into account the performance of their duties rather than their personal relationships There is communication within the department. clear at all levels To be a guideline for performing duties within the organization. as well as values for the organization or Muang Satun Police Station should be taken as a practice along with the rules Other regulations for building an organization Clean and transparent service Be fair to the people who receive the service. and continuously improve the operational quality of Muang Satun Police Station To achieve such intentions, Muang Satun Police Station will proceed as follows:

๑. Administration and duties with good governance It aims to meet the needs of the people with accuracy, fairness, transparency and can be traced at every step.

๒. Cultivate consciousness, instill values, attitudes, personnel of Muang Satun Police Station. To adhere to the philosophy of sufficiency economy in performing duties and living.

๓. Encourage private organizations and the public sector to participate in activities. And receive information about the activities openly and can participate in many channels. whether through technology or other forms of involvement

๔. Continuously promote and campaign for the prevention and suppression of corruption with penalties. serious and violent corruption including coordinating with agencies involved in the prevention and suppression of corruption

๕. Promote anti-corruption and watch out for all forms of corruption. There is strict surveillance and high penalties are applied to those who commit corruption. and those involved in a decisive and fair manner

It is hereby announced for general information.

Announced on February ๖, ๒๐๒๓

colonel

(Seksit Prajotchue)

Superintendent of Muang Satun Police Station